

Make a difference!

Join the MeWe-community

About us

We invite 16-29 year olds to share your life stories with other young people around the world. We are a Swedish research and consulting firm called Kairos Future (www.kairosfuture.com). Kairos Future has studied the values and lifestyles of young people since the company was established in 1993.

The content of this site will be used for our studies on global youth values and lifestyles. What are your dreams and wishes, hopes and fears, inspirations and aspirations in life? Show your everyday life with its ups and downs.

By participating you get a chance of influencing decision making worldwide in political and institutes, regional developers, international organizations and companies. You also get the chance of winning an i-pod, the higher level of elaborate activity, the higher are your odds. The blogs will be up-and-running by 16th of October 2006.

Write your personal blog

Write about your everyday life on topics such as dreams & wishes, hopes & fears and inspirations.

Participate in online discussion boards

Give your opinion on sustainable development, gender issues, globalization, your favorite countries, branding and more.

Contact

Please contact Ida Hult for more information: ida.hult@kairosfuture.com

Tel: +46 70 980 25 23