Tele-workshop in the series:*

Women and Access to Treatment: Part 1

Facilitator: Louise Binder, CTAC Chair

Wednesday October 11, 2006
1:00pm – 2:30pm eastern

This is a workshop offered over the telephone (teleworkshop). You will need to have access to a touch-tone phone to participate. There are no long-distance charges involved. All are welcome!

Teleworkshop description:

The first workshop on women's issues begins with an overview of how HIV/AIDS specifically affects women in Canada. Participants then look more in depth at specific issues facing women with regard to diagnosis of HIV, disclosure, relationships with caregivers, and access to the various diagnostic and other tests used for HIV/AIDS. This workshop will be held in English.

Join us for this teleworkshop to build on your skills to advocate and make change.
Meet other advocates!
