To Whom it May Concern:

Arnie Fernandez Arquiza, a citizen of Philippines, has been officially accepted to participate in the 12th International Youth Leadership Conference in Prague, Czech Republic, January 2-7, 2007.

Civic Concepts International, s.r.o., (CCI) hosts the International Youth Leadership Conference in the Czech Republic twice a year. Our tax identification number is CZ 264 597 44, our company ID is 264 597 44. While our official seat is at Senovážné nám. 23, Praha 1, our official mailing address is at Vinohradská 102, Praha 3, 130 00. The telephone number at the office is +420 272 730 897.

The IYLC is a weeklong forum on world politics, law, and international relations. It is an academically accredited course recognized by the Anglo-americká vysoká škola v Praze (formerly Anglo-American College), our academic partner, and will earn each participant a political science credit for successful completion of the conference. The theme of the conference is a "cross-cultural exchange of ideas concerning the future of world leadership." This upcoming winter we will be welcoming 150 students from around the world.

During all IYLC participants' stay in the Czech Republic, including Arnie Arquiza's, CCI will provide everyone with all the necessary facilities including accommodation, meals, and all transportation. The person to contact for further information is Katarina Olsova, katarina@civicconcepts.org, Conference Director for CCI, whose postal address is: CCI, s.r.o., Vinohradská 102, 130 00, Praha 3, Czech Republic.

Participants who need special visa requirements may use this as an "Official Letter of Invitation" to the Czech Republic. This letter is to be presented to the Czech Embassy in your home country when requesting a visa. Should there be any problems or complications please contact us, or have the Czech Embassy contact us for further assistance. Scholars who are looking for additional help in funding their conference tuition from universities or from corporate sponsors may use this document as an "Official Letter of Acceptance".
