

The Guttmacher Institute and our partners invite you to

Abortion Providers' Attitudes toward Women

A parallel event to commemorate the 51st Annual UN Commission on the Status of Women

March 5th, 12:00-2:45 p.m., UN Church Center, 777 UN Plaza, 10th Floor

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • LUNCH WILL BE SERVED

Join an international panel of experts for presentations of new evidence and an interactive discussion on access to abortion, provider attitudes and discrimination, and the potential of new technologies to empower women.

Expert Panelists:

---

“Women and Abortion Providers in Nigeria and Uganda”

Akinrole Bankole, Ph.D.

Director of International Research, Guttmacher Institute

---

“Denial of Therapeutic Abortion in Nicaragua - the Perspective of Health Care Providers”

Leonel Arguello Irigoyen, M.D.

Nicaraguan Society for General Medicine

---

“Giving Women Choices: Access to New Technologies in Abortion”

Beverly Winikoff, M.D., M.P.H.

President, Gynuity Health Projects

---

“The Second Assault: Obstructing Access to Legal Abortion After Rape in Mexico”

Marianne Mollmann

Advocacy Director, Women's Rights Division,
Human Rights Watch

---

“Rape, Unwanted Pregnancy and Abortion - Young People's Perspectives in Mexico”

Laura Villa Torres

Youth Coalition and Ipas Mexico

---

Moderated by Linda Prine, M.D., Associate Professor of Family Medicine Albert Einstein College of Medicine & Beth Israel Residency in Urban Family Practice; Medical Director of the Reproductive Health Access Project; Trainer and Abortion Provider at Planned Parenthood of New York City.

