

A documentary profiling five HIV-positive community leaders working for change

INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT WEEK 2008

The Ontario Council for International Cooperation HIV and AIDS Working Group and the Ontario HIV Treatment Network present the screening of

Positive Voices: Leading Together

Set in the context of the 2006 International AIDS Conference in Toronto, the documentary highlights the evolving nature of HIV/AIDS, the challenges that different communities face, the impact of the social determinants of health, and what is possible when people living with HIV/AIDS speak out.

National Film Board of Canada Mediatheque
150 John Street, Toronto (John and Richmond St. W)
Saturday, February 9th, 2008
Doors Open at 2:00 pm
Admission: $5.00 / Pay What You Can

Post-film: Q & A with Lisungu Chieza and Art Zoccole

The audience is invited to attend a reception, and view NGO displays and a Millenium Development Goals postcard exhibition after the screening.

Canadian International Development Agency

Agence canadienne de développement international

