

NAVIGATING THE JUSTICE SYSTEM

This free session is offered four times in the following areas of Toronto:

EAST SCARBOROUGH:

East Scarborough Boys and Girls Club,
100 Galloway Road,
Scarborough

DATE: Monday Nov. 30,
9am - 4pm

WEST TORONTO:

Seneca@York,
York University Campus,
70 the Pond Road,
Rm S1209

DATE: Thursday Dec. 3,
9am - 4pm

DOWNTOWN TORONTO:

Scadding Court
Community Centre,
707 Dundas Street West,
Toronto

DATE: Friday Jan. 29,
9am - 4pm

WEST SCARBOROUGH:

McGregor Park
Community Centre,
2231 Lawrence Avenue E.

February 2010
(Date to be confirmed)

9am - 4pm

All venues are accessible*

The Ontario Justice Education Network (OJEN) is offering a capacity development training session for Youth Workers and Student Success Teachers. While OJEN offers programs for youth, NAVIGATING THE JUSTICE SYSTEM is a professional development opportunity specifically geared to enhance the capacity of Youth Workers, front line practitioners and Student Success Teachers on the justice system.

SESSION AT A GLANCE:

- Who's who in the court system.
- Navigating a Charge step-by-step.
- Roles of duty counsel, crown and the police.
- Bail conditions and consequences for breaching.
- Dealing with your Lawyers.
- Lawyers and other justice system representatives will be available
- Getting Legal Aid and more!

Refreshments and lunch will be served.

Session materials will be provided on site.

REGISTRATION: There is no charge to attend the session. Registration is very limited, required and on a first come first serve basis. If you register for a workshop and do not attend and/or do not find a replacement, you will be invoiced a $50.00 "No-Show" Fee.

Deadline for registration is one (1) week prior to the scheduled session date.

Please sign and send registration form by FAX to:
416 947 5248.

For further information please contact OJEN
at 416 947 5273 or via email: info@ojen.ca